

Biography

Andrea Brown, PhD

Research Associate, McMaster University

Andrea Brown graduated with a PhD in Applied Social Psychology from the University of Guelph in 2007. Since 2015, she has been conducting research and evaluation in mental health and addictions. Prior to this, she worked as a human factors consultant conducting applied research for the Department of National Defence. She has extensive experience conducting qualitative research with public safety personnel and military/Veteran populations. She is also currently working on a Masters in Psychotherapy at McMaster University.

