

CANADIAN MST COP SUMMARY AND MEMBER ORGANIZATIONS

The Canadian Military Sexual Trauma (MST) Community of Practice (CoP) is composed of researchers, clinicians, and policy leaders from across Canadian universities, government departments, and NGOs. It also includes representatives with lived experience of MST.

The purpose of the CoP is to engage in meaningful knowledge sharing that contributes to the collective understanding of MST. The CoP also explores opportunities to increase research, make MST-related information accessible, and expand public awareness.

Our goals are ultimately to improve services for and the lives of military members and Veterans affected by MST.

Member organizations:

- Canadian Armed Forces (CAF)
- Canadian Institute for Military and Veteran Health Research (CIMVHR)
- Centre of Excellence for PTSD (COE PTSD)
- DGMPRA: Director General Military Personnel Research and Analysis (DGMPRA)
- Heroes in Mind, Advocacy and Research Consortium (HiMARC)
- Homewood Research Institute (HRI)
- It's Not Just 700 (INJ700)
- McMaster University
- Memorial University
- Office of Veteran Ombudsman (OVO)
- Public Health Agency of Canada (PHAC)
- Queen's University
- St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton
- Servicewomen's Salute
- Sexual Misconduct Response Centre (SMRC)
- University of Alberta

CANADIAN
MST CoP
MILITARY SEXUAL TRAUMA
COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE