

RESEARCH STUDY ON GENDER IDENTITY

We are seeking individuals who identify as gender diverse (e.g., transgender, nonbinary, gender fluid, Two-Spirit, gender queer) to participate in a research study aimed at understanding 1) how gender identity develops and 2) how gender identity relates to social relationships and mental health. You will be compensated $100 for your time

Participating will include:

- A 1.5 hour virtual qualitative interview about your experience of understanding your identity with a member of our research team.
- Completing online questionnaires (~1.5 hour).

To participate, you must be:

- 18-years-old or older
- Comfortable using electronic devices (i.e., laptop, tablet, smart phone, etc.)
- Communicate fluently in English

For more information on participating, please contact co-principal investigator Dr. Taylor Hatchard at hatchart@mcmaster.ca

This study has been approved by the Hamilton Integrated Research Ethics Board under project #15084 and the DND/CAF Social Science Research Review Board in accordance with DAOD 5062-0 and 5062-1. The SSRRB approval # is 2074/22F.
